

EBA OUTSTANDING PARALEGAL AWARD

This award, established by the Evansville Bar Association in 2009, is to recognize those members of the Paralegal Section who have provided outstanding service to the Evansville legal community through their involvement in the EBA and through their work. Practitioners also recognize this individual with the formal title of Paralegal. For consideration, nominees must be current members of the Paralegal Section.

Additional standards for selection of the recipient of this award include: level of involvement in the Paralegal Section, efforts to promote and enhance the profession, and a dedication to helping others as demonstrated through their involvement in the community.
